ESCHER GROUP™

Keeping Our Customers
Competitive

“Escher Group’s software and services were key to this project’s success, along with the company’s dedicated team of professionals who were with us every step of the way.”

United States Postal Service

“In the ten years since we launched our Riposte®-based counter system, we have achieved unprecedented volume increases for our counters business.”

An Post

“Escher Group’s Riposte products enable rapid time to market for new products and low overall cost of ownership.”

Posten Norge

“We needed a system that could address our requirements for high performance, cost reduction, and flexibility in a very dynamic environment. Riposte is a proven solution that addresses all of these demands.”

CTT Correios de Portugal

“With Riposte, replication across servers in a distributed network means no single point of failure. Riposte is a proven solution.”

Deutsche Post
(now Deutsche Post World Net)

“Few projects have run so smoothly, under budget and on time. In fact, we could have rolled out more post offices a day. Riposte’s sophisticated messaging infrastructure will allow Singapore Post to drastically increase capabilities in record time.”

Singapore Post

“Essential has a proven track record of success within the postal community and that is extremely important to us.”

South African Post Office

“Riposte gives us the infrastructure to automate beyond our counter system, extending applications to the Internet and public access kiosks, and supporting the mobile postal worker.”

Post and Telekom Austria AG
(now Österreichische Post AG)

Post offices and other businesses around the world choose Escher’s technology to improve efficiency and gain the flexibility necessary for sustainable growth.

They turn to us for our proven record of security and ease of use across multiple applications.

And they count on our ability to bring their services to new channels such as the Internet, public access kiosks, and mobile devices.
